

BUILDING A SMARTER, STRONGER, AND CLEANER ENERGY GRID FOR THE DISTRICT

2018 INVESTMENTS

An Exelon Company

Pepco is committed to powering a cleaner and brighter future for our customers and communities by modernizing and investing in the electric grid. In 2018, Pepco took several steps to make the District's energy system smarter, stronger, and cleaner.

INVESTED

$166 million to upgrade and expand the electric system to support a growing economy and serve new customers

INVESTED

$122 million to deliver record reliability to all customers, achieving top decile performance

INTERCONNECTED

894 solar energy projects for a total of 4,685 systems interconnected to the grid

INSPECTED MORE THAN

10,800 manholes

2,200 transformers

350 miles of lines

TRIMMED TREES ALONG

252 miles of distribution lines to help reduce outages

INSTALLED

92 automated devices, including reclosers, smart switches and trip savers, to restore service faster

REPLACED

39 utility poles and

43 underground circuits

STAY INFORMED. STAY CONNECTED.

An Exelon Company